HADITH OF THE MONTH:

It was reported in al-Sahihayn from 'Imran ibn Husayn, may Allah be pleased with him, that the Prophet (blessings and peace of Allah be upon him) said to a man: "Have you fasted anything of the Sirar of this month?" He said: "No." He said: "If you have not fasted, then fast two days." According to a report Reported by Al-Bukhari: I think he meant Ramadan. According to a report Reported by Muslim, (the Prophet, blessings and peace of Allah be upon him) said: "Have you fasted anything of the Sirar of Sha'ban?" (Reported by Al-Bukhari, 4/2000; Muslim, no. 1161). The Hadith of Abu Hurayrah, may Allah be pleased with him, quoted above is what we should follow according to the majority of scholars. It is Makruh to observe a voluntary fast one or two days before Ramadan for those who do not habitually fast on those days and who have not previously fasted until the end of Sha'ban.

We need to pursue the completion of further phases of the project. Please be generous with your donations to the house of Allah.

AYAH OF THE MONTH: "The Mosques of Allah shall be maintained only by those who believe in Allah and the Last Day; perform As-Salat (Iqamat-as-Salat), and give Zakat and fear none but Allah. It is they who are expected to be on true guidance"- [at-Tawbah 9:18].
